- ❖ Haigslea Lawn Cemetery
- ❖ Stone Quarry Cemetery
- ❖ Ipswich General Cemetery

Ashes can be interred either under the headstone of an existing grave, in one of the memorial gardens, in a columbarium wall or they can be scattered over a grave or in a garden.

Columbarium Walls

We offer two compassionate styles of Columbarium Walls at Warrill Park Lawn Cemetery. We aim to provide a serene and respectful space for quiet reflection.

The Sandstone Columbarium Walls are double-sided, and the niches can comfortably accommodate two large-sized containers of ashes, ensuring that families can be together even in this final resting place. Whether you choose single or double interments, our thoughtful packages include a beautifully designed cast bronze memorial plaque, allowing you to honour their memory in a meaningful way.

The Granite Columbarium Walls are thoughtfully designed to honour loved ones, featuring a double-sided structure that accommodates single ashes inurnments. As part of our package, we offer a heartfelt touch with a beautifully laser-engraved inscription on a durable granite tablet, ensuring that the memory of your cherished one is lovingly preserved.

Melaleuca Memorial Walk

A peaceful path winds gently through the serene Melaleuca Forest, offering a comforting space for reflection. Here, families can choose natural rock placements for a cast bronze memorial plaque, allowing loved ones to rest close to nature. It's a heartfelt way to honor those we cherish, enveloped by the beauty and tranquility of the forest.

Shady Fig Memorial Circle

Nestled beneath the expansive branches of a large Fig Tree, the circular garden offers a comforting sanctuary. Each resting place is marked by an artificial rock that can accommodate two ashes containers and is sealed by a beautifully crafted cast bronze plaque. These plaques are designed to honour loved ones, allowing for heartfelt inscriptions that can reflect both individual stories and shared memories. The rock also has a special space for a ceramic photo.
